I added some comments or questions to some of yours. I don't like the word "safe" in first sentence of first bullet. Suggested alternative language. Let me know if you have questions.

I added some of your comments into my comments. I also added some explanation in comment boxes in the file with your comments.

Yep. I didn't share my comments with anyone else. Let me know if you have questions on any of mine. Also let me know if you want me to consolidate them. I didn't even bother with LL.

I had to start and stop a couple of times because of some of the wording

My comments/questions. Region 9 makes some leading statements and doesn't support them.....

Stuart and Mary –

Please see the attached draft briefing paper on the (currently informal) Hunters Point dispute between EPA and the Navy. We would appreciate your quick staff-level review, by noon Wednesday if possible. We plan to brief Enrique on Thursday, and expect him to send out a revised draft to Dana and Greg late this week or (more likely) next week. Thanks.
